200 People Lose Their Lives.

All the Lives Lost in the River Volga, Where the Steamer Burned to the Water.

A Duel is Averted by McLean and Halstead, of Cincinnati.

STEAMER BURED.

Two Hundred People Perish in the Flames.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The report that the British steamer "Aberdeen" had been foundered in the China sea is not correct. The announcement of her arrival at Suez has just been received.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says that a passenger steamer plying on the river Volga, at Saratov, the capital of the province Saratov, in Russia, was burned to-day, and 200 lives were lost.

APPEAL TO THE CODE.

Mr. Halstead Wants to Fight, but Mr. McLean Won't.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Correspondence is made public between Col. W. G. Terrell, acting for Murat Halstead, editor of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, and John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Gen. Roger A. Pryor. Halstead demanded a settlement of the differences and McLean at first declined to appoint a friend, but subsequently named General Pryor. Halstead claimed to be even, with McLean in this newspaper warfare, but asserted that McLean was responsible for statements made in a Cincinnati evening paper, and for which he wanted an apology or blood. McLean disclaimed any responsibility for the publication, and showed a telegram he had sent a week before deprecating. Halstead accepted this as satisfactory and there will be no duel.

Geronimo Surrounded.

NOGALES, Arizona, Aug. 21.—While negotiations between the Mexican authorities and Geronimo, near Ariz Pe, the Mexicans quietly surrounded the Indians and now have them where there is no possibility of escape. Geronimo has been notified that the only terms will be unconditional surrender.

A BAD RUNAWAY.

J. W. Whitacre and Mr. Green, of New Haven, Badly Hurt.

Mr. J. W. Whitacre and Mr. Green drove in from New Haven this morning behind a fiery colt. The animal took fright on Lafayette street and dashed onto Wayne at a furious gallop. The thoroughly frightened horse made a lunge for Dwight D. Gillett's front gate and striking the vehicle was smashed and its occupants pitched out and both were badly bruised and cut. A little child of Mr. Gillett's was run over in the flight and received painful injuries. It was a frightful spectacle to look at the horse rush madly through the gateway into a rear shed where it dropped to the earth. Messrs. Whitacre and Green will be laid up and they are under obligations to the ladies of the neighborhood for tender and affectionate dressing of their wounds.

Mr. Leo Pottlitzer, of Lafayette, Ind., will spend Sunday with his relatives in this city, en route to his home, after an extensive eastern trip.

Adjutant General Koonz is in the city. He says in explanation of the charge of Lafayette papers that he has necessarily deferred the report of the late encampment; that his report will be submitted next week; that he has been obliged to look after office business which had accumulated during the encampment; that all of the Lafayette bills have been paid, and that the report is delayed because of a horse bill and the disappearance of some tents, which have to be traced, and which are now being looked after.

HON. B. F. IBACH.

He is Nominated for Joint Representative.

The joint representative convention between Huntington and Allen counties convened at 2 o'clock. Chairman John Wilkinson, of the county committee, called the meeting to order. Mr. Harry France was chosen chairman and A. J. Moynihan secretary, with democratic editors as assistants. Messrs. O. B. Wiley, of Allen, and Charles Walters, of Huntington, were named as tellers.

The following resolutions were introduced and adopted:

I move that no person shall be balloted for in this convention unless such person shall personally pledge himself to support the nominee of this convention and the entire democratic nomination—state, county, congressional and senatorial and judicial—and if elected support the nominee of the democratic caucus for United States senator.

CHARLES A. WALTER.

Nominations were declared in order. Master Workman Cohen, of Wabash assembly, handed a resolution asking the convention to endorse C. A. Bookwalter, a republican put forward by the Knights of Labor. The communication was received and placed on file.

There was a controversy over the delegate from Madison township. W. T. Pratt held a proxy, and Dr. J. L. Smith was delegated to take his place and cast the vote of Madison township.

The following resolution was introduced by A. J. Moynihan and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the nominee of this convention shall stand pledged, if elected, to use every honorable effort for the advancement of the best interests of labor, and to make such legislation as will best promote the best interests of the Knights of Labor.

Capt. E. B. Smith nominated George L. Benson, a Knight of Labor of Wabash Assembly, and member of the typographical union, in a speech endorsing the Democratic party as the friend of labor.

Mr. Christian Piepenbrink nominated W. S. Oppenheim.

W. S. Robinson, of Allen, nominated B. F. Ibach, of Huntington.

The candidates pledged themselves in brief speeches.

There are sixty votes in all, making thirty-one necessary to a choice. Allen has 34 and Huntington 16.

The first ballot resulted: Benson, 9; Ibach, 27, and Oppenheim, 22.

The second ballot resulted: Ibach, 31; Oppenheim, 21; Benson, 6.

Mr. Ibach was nominated by acclamation, and made a speech.

From there he will be taken to Zion Lutheran church, where Professor Zuecker will speak in German and Rev. Wagenhals in the English language.

The Procession Passing.

As we go to press the procession is passing and it is not only the grandest in the history of Fort Wayne but we believe stands unequalled in the state. The military display was simply great and merchants and manufacturers did themselves honor. The reunion promoters have reason to be proud of their work.

MASONIC BENEFIT SOCIETY.

Excellent Condition of Its Finances—Falling Off in Membership.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 21.—The Masonic Mutual Benefit society held its seventeenth annual meeting yesterday afternoon. The president, Austin H. Brown, in his annual address, said that a reduction of $5,241.40 had been made in expenses, that the outstanding liabilities, $45,000, were lower than for years; that the mortality for the year was eighty-eight against 111 in 1885; that the membership had decreased from 10,318 in 1885 to 6,681 in 1886, owing largely to the abandonment of the old system of soliciting members through agents.

George H. West, secretary, reported a membership of 3,810 in the first division and 3,171 in the second. The cost of insurance to each member last year was $18.02 per $1,000. The assets of the society are $85,285.63; liabilities $35,505.50 in the first division, and $35,671.74 and $10,040.60 respectively, in the second. During the year $258,850 has been paid to beneficiaries, making a total paid, $3,000,587.96. Wm. H. Smythe, treasurer, reported receipts $308,456.24; disbursements, $302,092.75; cash balance $6,363.71.

DEATH LIST.

The Mortuary Report of the Week.

The following is the list of deaths since last Saturday:

Alvin Sorg, aged 26 years, suicide.

Scholastic Pierrot, 63 years, paralysis.

Michael Donovan, 49 years, abscess of the lungs.

Mary Langer, 8 months, cholera infantum.

O. Bird, 2 days, exhaustion.

John Langer, 8 months, cholera infantum.

Mary Miller, 35 years, typhoid fever.

Clara E. Anweiler, 8 years, brain fever.

Daniel Uppliger, 69 years, heart disease.

Annie Osterman, 24 years, consumption.

The Odd Fellows Abroad.

The Kendallville Standard says: "The Odd Fellows picnic and reunion at Rome City yesterday was a success. There were probably nearly 4,000 people there, coming from nearly all points in northern Indiana. Grand Master J. B. Kenner and Past Grand Representative Enoch Cox made the regular addresses, and they were both able, and attentively listened to. The bands present from Portland, Fort Wayne, Ligonier, Kendallville, furnished the music, and all of it was of superior order. In the afternoon a little extra, not advertised in the program, was thrown in, by calling for impromptu speeches, when Senator Drake, J. D. Ferrall, O. L. Ballou, of LaGrange, Rev. Stewart, of Butler, Robert Lockhart, of Ligonier, and Grand Master Kenner were called out and made short addresses, highly pleasing to the audience. There has seldom been an hour of more pleasant and brilliant entertainment in the tabernacle there than that was."

Henry Chipman Post 80, from War saw, and one of the best Grand Army assemblies in the state, is attending the reunion under command of Gen. Reub Williams.

Northern Indiana fared exceedingly well at the recent democratic state convention. Four of the candidates on the ticket—Nelson, Coffroth, Munson and Krueger—reside north of the Wabash.

COMING CAMPAIGN.

Meeting of the State Central Committee and the Candidates—What Some of the Latter Have to Say.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 21.—All of the democratic candidates for state offices came to town yesterday to advise with the state central committee and to be assessed. Chairman Henderson's opinion that there will be no need of a "bar" this year because the state is already secure in its democracy, came like an evangel to the various nominees. The present requirements were said to be limited to room rent for the committee, stationary and a salary for the secretary. To meet these and other "incidentals," it is thought that an assessment of $1,000 per state candidate, payable in installments, will be adequate. The burden of the campaign expenses will come later in the season, when foreign oratorical talent is imported. But the campaign is not to be on the "wind-work" plan. Several of the nominees are not successful speakers, and these believe in other methods of work. Members of the committee are pronounced in the statement that the day of vote-making at $2 per head is over in Indiana, and neither the committee nor the candidates or anticipating the collection of funds for any other than legitimate expenses.

Judge Nelson, candidate for lieutenant governor, is in the city. He is an able and modest gentleman, and has been made to feel that the people, at least the democracy, of his part of the state are well pleased with the state ticket. Without boasting as to even probabilities, he said that there was every reason to believe that the ticket would receive the full support of the democracy.

Superintendent Sweeney, of Dubois county, nominated for the state superintendency of schools, is at the Grand. He is as chipper as if his election had already been guaranteed, and this in spite of the political shafts which have already hurled at him, chiefly on a score of his nationality and his religion. With regard to the story that he was educated for the priesthood, but abandoned it because he saw, loved and married a maiden, Prof. Sweeney said it was true with these exceptions: He was not educated for the priesthood, never took holy orders, and didn't meet his wife until two years after he began to teach in the public schools. Mr. Sweeney further said:

"I was reared a Catholic, and have no desire to conceal or deny it, for I would be less than a man to do so. But I am not responsible for having been born into a Catholic family, and my religion in no way interferes with the full performance of my duties."

"Is it true that the public schools of Dubois county are conducted for the benefit of the Catholic church?"

"It is not true. At least 75 per cent. of the teachers are Protestants, and fully 50 per cent. of them are republicans. The Catholics pay their proportion for the support of the schools and patronize them. After school hours in some districts the Catholics use the public school buildings for parochial instruction, but that is not peculiar to that people or Dubois county."

"It has been hinted that because of my relations to the Catholics I might be loyal to the public schools. I have much faith in the public schools that I would almost as soon think of going back on my mother as on them, for all the education I have they gave me, and I have reason to be devoted to them."

Mr. Sweeney is a gentleman of agreeable address, and his outspoken, frank demeanor is making him friends where opposition would naturally be expected. His conference on the ticket now think that he will add an element of strength wholly unlooked for, and there are also those who fear that his nomination was a mistake. Time will tell.

The central committee met yesterday

afternoon at its room in the Franklin insurance building. Messrs. Nelson, Miers, McMullen, Byrnes, Coffroth, Munson and Sweeney, state candidates, and Messrs. Bynum and Bailey, with their advisers, together with a considerable lobby, were present. The business of the meeting was to select an executive committee and to elect a secretary and treasurer. There was only one name suggested for treasurer—Mr. John P. Frenzel—and that gentleman was elected. It is thought that the executive committee will consist of Joseph E. McDonald, J. H. Rice, John A. Holman, W. J. Craig, S. P. Sheerin, Israel Curry of Boone, and the chairman. For secretary there were numerous candidates, including Dick Johnson and Loring Bundy, of Marion county; Ed Cushman, of Madison; J. W. Cravens, of Monroe, and Editor Williams, of Johnson. The committee elected R. O. Johnson secretary, and for an executive committee selected the gentleman named above.

LATER.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 21, 3 p. m.—The democratic state central committee this morning decided that both Mr. Bynum and Mr. Bailey should withdraw from the congressional race and left with the district committee the necessary arrangements for the future.

Attention Democrats.

The Democrats of Allen county are requested to meet on Friday, the 3rd day of September, 1886, at the usual voting places in their respective wards, townships and precincts for the purpose of electing by ballot 153 delegates to attend the county convention to be held in the city of Fort Wayne, on Saturday, the 4th day of September, 1886,—which convention will meet for the purpose of nominating one senator, two representatives to the general assembly, one judge of the superior court of Allen county, one prosecuting attorney, clerk of the circuit court, auditor, recorder, treasurer, sheriff, coroner, surveyor, and one commissioner of the first district. SWEPT FROM EARTH.

A Cyclone Visits Texas With all its Fury.

VICTORIA, Texas, Aug. 21.—A disastrous wind storm visited this city yesterday. The east bound passenger train standing at the depot here was blown over upon the platform. The whole colored section was almost literally swept from the earth. About seventy-five houses were completely demolished, and 118 more or less damaged.

GALVESTON, Texas, Aug. 21.—The schooner Sivonia Perkins, engaged in the lumber trade, was sunk by the force of the gale, off the bar in six fathoms of water, Thursday night. Of the four persons on board, only one escaped and he swam for a distance of twelve miles.

INDIANOLA, Texas, Aug. 21.—Every body wants to get away. They have nothing to eat and no clothes. It is reported the lower end of town is all gone, from Mrs. Loggus to the ice house, on both sides of the street. The wharf is also gone. There are supposed to be many lives lost, as many persons are missing, and only one body found.

Among the persons missing are:

Dr. Lewis.
Captain Reed.
Dr. Rosecrans.
Mrs. Sheppard and family.
Mrs. Hodges and two children.
Henry Sheppard was found across the lake, badly bruised but still alive.
Mrs. Max Luther lost her two children. One died in her arms.

To the Cuticura Remedies I Owe My Health, My Happiness, and My Life.

A day never passes that I do not think and speak kindly of the Cuticura Remedies. Seven years ago, all of a sudden I was afflicted with a skin disease, ranging in size from a cherry stone to an orange. The large ones were painful to look at and painful to bear; people turned aside when they saw me, in disgust, and I was ashamed to be on the street or in society. Physicians and their treatment, and all medicines failed to do any good. In a moment of despair I tried the Cuticura Remedies—Cuticura, the great skin cure, and Cuticura Soap, an exquisite skin beautifier, externally, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, internally; the small lumps, (as I call them) gradually disappeared, and the large ones broke, in about two weeks, discharging large quantities of matter. During the two months in my neck to-day to tell the story of my suffering. My weight then was one hundred and fifteen pounds; my weight now is one hundred and sixty-one pounds, healthy, and my height is only five feet five inches. In my travels I praised the Cuticura Remedies, North, South, East and West. To Cuticura Remedies I owe my health, my happiness, and my life. A prominent New York druggist asks me the other day, "Do you still use the Cuticura Remedies; you look to be in perfect health?" My reply was, "I do, and shall always. I have never known what sickness is since I commenced using the Cuticura Remedies." Sometimes I am laughed at by praising them to people not acquainted with their merits, but sooner or later they will come to their senses and believe the same as those "last use them, as dozens have whom I have told. May the time come when there shall be a large Cuticura supply house in every city in the world, for the benefit of humanity, where the Cuticura Remedies shall be sold only, so there will be rarely a need of ever entering a drug store.

Sneezing Catarrh

The distressing sneeze, sneeze, sneeze, the acid, watery discharges from the eyes and nose, the painful inflammation extending to the throat, the swelling of the mucous lining, causing choking sensations, coughing, noises in the head and splitting headaches—how familiar these symptoms are to thousands who suffer periodically from colds, or influenza, and who live in ignorance of the fact that a single application of Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh will afford instantaneous relief.

But this treatment in cases of simple catarrh gives but a faint idea of what this remedy will do in the chronic form, where the breathing is obstructed by choking, putrid mucus accumulations, the hearing affected, smell and taste gone, the throat ulcerated and back gradually fastening itself upon the debilitated system. Then it is that the marvelous curative power of Sanford's Radical Cure manifests itself in instantaneous and grateful relief. Cure begins from the first application. It is rapid, radical, permanent, economical, safe.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent and an improved Inhaler, price, $1.00. Put in a Druggist or Chemical Co., Boston.

THE HOME OF JEFF DAVIS.

THE HOUSE WHERE HE WAS BORN, AND WHERE HE LIVES NOW.

The Ancient House at Fairview, Ky. "Beauvoir," His Present Home, a Legacy from a Southern Lady—Pines, Live Oaks and Scuppernon Grapes.

Jefferson Davis was born in Todd county, Kentucky. His fellow Kentuckians are proud of it or not, according to the side they were on during the great disagreement. It is a fact not often mentioned that during the greatest struggle in the history of the American republic, the two opposing leaders, Lincoln and Davis, were both natives of Kentucky. Had they staid there they might have been jolly, rip-roaring, horse-racing, Bourbon-drinking private gentlemen. They would probably have called their favorite animal a "hoss." But they did not remain. When both were very small boys they left their native state—Lincoln to wander north, Davis south, each in search of his destiny. Each in after years to take the leading part in that stupendous tragedy whose stage was a continent and its audience the world.

BIRTHPLACE OF JEFF. DAVIS.

The two men were very nearly of an age, too, Davis being eight months older than Lincoln. But the history of the boys was very different. Lincoln had not a friend in the world except his poor, illiterate step-mother. Such education as he had he got himself, heaven knows how. But the hand of fate was on him, pushing him toward his destiny.

Davis' parents, on the contrary, were not poor. He went with them to Mississippi at the age of 8. They sent him to an academy, and next to Transylvania college. Thence he was appointed to a cadetship at West Point. He was graduated in 1828 there and took part as an officer in the Black Hawk war. For poor Lincoln there was no college and no West Point.

Todd county, where Davis was born, is in the southwest part of Kentucky, adjoining Tennessee. It used to be Christian county. Among his peculiarities is a remarkable memory for names. Some years ago he visited Todd county, whence he migrated at the age of 8, and astonished the natives by calling the names of many of them, which he had remembered ever since. Mr. Davis will be 80 if he lives till June, 1888.

Few have ever seen a picture of the house where the ex-president of the southern Confederacy was born. There are those who will be interested to see it, for like Davis himself, it is a part of American history. It is still standing, a building of the fashion of many years ago. A story and a half in front, the roof slopes far down at the back, covering what used to be called "porch bedrooms." The chimney outside the wall of the house is still seen in many Kentucky houses. Indeed, the rich people who are building high art cottages at our watering places to-day are resurrecting the old fashion.

If a larger view of the grounds about the ancient house could be given it would show a well-kept roofed over, a smoke house and a pig pen.

The first two-thirds of Mr. Davis' active life was about equally divided between war and politics. In the United States senate he was the leading champion of negro slavery and state rights. In the good old time, undoubtedly, the house where he was born had, a stone's throw away, a group of whitewashed log cabins, which were the negro quarters. These cabins are still seen about southern houses, though now they are fast falling into decay. With Mr. Davis himself they are a relic of a vanished phase of our history.

After the war Mr. Davis spent two years as a prisoner at Fortress Monroe, and was released in 1867. He traveled in Europe several years after his release, and in 1871 returned to live in Mississippi. He has never applied to have his disabilities removed, has not taken the oath of allegiance to the United States, and is still a man without a country.

BEAUVOIR.

He was not a rich man after the war, which ruined his political fortunes. A southern lady, who was one of his most devoted admirers, died about ten years ago and willed him a handsome country home and plantation. It is called Beauvoir. Here he lives with his wife and daughter, Virginia, born in Richmond during the war. No pictures of this, his latest home, have been given to the public until now. The little hamlet in which he was born in Kentucky was called Fairview. Beauvoir is French for exactly the same name.

Beauvoir is a typical southern home, broad low and square, with a veranda about it. It is built for coolness. A wide hall runs through it with double doors. It is in the shade of live oaks, from which the gray southern moss hangs in graceful, though melancholy, festoons. There is a vineyard of Scuppernon grapes near the mansion. This is a delicate green grape, native to the south. The negroes and poor whites pronounce it "Scupperlong." It produces a delicious wine.

Pine trees are mingled with the oaks around Beauvoir. The wind from the sound creeps through these trees everlastingly. It is a pleasant, though not a very jolly place to live. The house is situated upon a slight hill. Through trees one catches glimpses of the waters of the Gulf of Mexico near by. Its beach of shining white sand is in front of Beauvoir and perhaps 300 feet away. But so strong is state rights feeling down here to this day that the people won't have the Gulf of Mexico. They call the waters "Mississippi sound" thereabouts.

On the path from the railway station to the mansion the visitor passes another adjunct to the former typical southern home. This is "the cottage." Before the war, when southern gentlemen did not have to work for their living as hard as they do now, "the cottage" was a sort of bachelor's den sacred to the master of the plantation and gentlemen friends who visited him. It had billiard tables and a wine closet. There the men "chummed," played Mississippi poker and drank Kentucky whisky. Sometimes for fun they gambled away a night's worth of the fashion in which they still "get it from right in northern club houses.

HANDSOME MRS. CLEVELAND.

To While Away Time She Has Twenty-two Photographs Taken.

Among the minor social topics are Mrs. Cleveland's photographs. Whereas it was a deadly sin to make a picture of her before she became Mrs. Grover, now it seems that we cannot have too many.

The president's wife has recently had twenty-two photographs taken in all manner of poses and dresses. She is a beautiful woman. The lucky photographer was Bell of Washington. He wished his distinguished subject to go to his own gallery, because he could do better justice to her there, but Grover wouldn't have it, and so the mountain came to Mahomet. The pictures were taken in the White House conservatory.

The portrait here given is from the photograph which good judges pronounce the most striking. The head is raised in a spirited way and the profile shows the short, slightly arched upper lip. Young Mrs. Cleveland weighs 140 pounds and has a will of her own. The dress she wears in this picture is a cream colored flannel lawn tennis suit with blouse waist and a deep black velvet plastron over it. The photographer was charmed with her behavior while he was taking her pictures. He says: "I never had a better sitter. She poses very easily and naturally and tries her best to do her part. I have had to make very few suggestions in relation to her poses. She has been one of the easiest ladies to please I ever had come to my gallery. She is not at all fussy. She does not insist on having the negatives touched up in order to flatter her like some customers that I might mention."

To be sure, though, it is no great credit to her to wish the negatives left just as the are, for she is handsome enough to stand it. Just at present she is the most talked of woman in the world. All she says and does is noted down and printed in the newspapers. Not many women but know how she looks in church.

MRS. CLEVELAND.

The books she reads have been written about. Boston will turn up its nose to hear that her favorite novelist is "Ouida," and that she considers "Wanda" the most perfect tale of fiction ever written. But what of that? Jenny Juno, a lady of excellent literary taste, says the same.

After hearing of her favorite in fiction it is amusing to be told that Mrs. Cleveland enjoys argumentative Presbyterian theological literature. Another handsome picture among the host of photographs is one taken in a black dress. Whatever she may do in the society season, it appears that the president's new wife has not yet caught the mania for very low-necked dresses. A few of the pictures are taken in V-shaped bodices, but most of the gowns are high necked. With the black gown the lady wears around her neck a band of black velvet, fastened with a splendid diamond star. This ornament was one of her wedding presents. The sleeves are of black lace, showing the arms through. A newspaper person approvingly remarks that Mrs. Cleveland's arms are more beautifully molded than Langtry's. As Langtry's arms were the same size all the way down, the remark may or may not be a compliment to the president's wife.

POND'S EXTRACT, for a period of 35 years has proved an unfailing and invaluable remedy for nearly all forms of inflammation, ulceration, cutaneous eruptions, catarrh, piles, besides many other "diseases that flesh is heir to." Beware of worthless imitations, and insist upon having POND'S Extract. Sold by druggists generally.

John Brown, a wealthy farmer living in Warsaw, Ind., was robbed of $450 on last Monday during the closing day of the reunion.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE Cod-Liver Oil, With Hypophosphates, In General Debility, Emaciation, Consumption and Wasting in Children, is a most valuable food and medicine. It creates an appetite for food, strengthens the nervous system and builds up the body. It is prepared in a palatable form and prescribed universally by physicians. Take no other.

The forty-seventh session of the Indiana annual conference of the African M. E. church will convene in Vincennes, August 26, and continue one week. The Indiana conference comprises the states of Indiana and Michigan.

Why do you suffer with backache, pain in the chest, rheumatism, or lameness anywhere when a Hop Plaster will surely give you relief. Druggists sell them, 25 cents.

Rev. Sam Jones was advertised to be at the Acton camp meeting and 20,000 people gathered to hear him. Mr. Jones was 500 miles away and never contracted to be there. It was a swindle that reacts.

In the Dead Old Days. We differ in creed and politics, but we are a unit all the same in the desirableness of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss of your blessing and ornament, a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balm will make you look as you did in the dead old days. It is worth trying. It is the only standard 50c article for the hair.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Jan. 19-20-21-22.

MICHIGAN FEMALE SEMINARY

Kalamazoo, Mich. On Mt. Holyoke Plan. Best of tuition. 100 per school year. Building heated by steam. Instruction thorough. Fall term begins Sept. 8, 1886. For circular address principal.

Some time ago the health officers of Sheffield, England, presented to certain local druggists various prescriptions written by qualified men, the prescriptions being also so arranged that each should include a full dose of some expensive remedy capable of ready and accurate estimation in a mixture. A series of these samples in which 120 grains of iodide of potassium were prescribed were found on analysis to contain 122, 120, and 76 grains, respectively; the last was, therefore, made up with hardly two-thirds of the active ingredients ordered. Of three samples which should have contained 16 grains of sulphate of quinine, one contained 9½ grains, or less than two-thirds of the prescribed amount. Another sample which should have contained 40 grains of sulphate of quinine had but 30 grains. Of twelve samples of glycerine, only five were pure and of the required standard; two others were somewhat below the official strength, containing 6 and 8 per cent. of water, respectively, but were otherwise pure; two others were adulterated with 11 and 12 per cent. of water; two were of full strength, but contained lime and some non-volatile organic impurity.

They are Not Sorry.

There is one thing nobody ever regrets—that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Hay Fever.

I have been a hay fever sufferer for three years; have often heard Ely's Cream Balm spoken of in the highest terms; did not take much stock in it because of the many quack medicines. A friend persuaded me to try the Balm, and I did so with wonderful success—T. S. Greer, Syracuse, N. Y.

I can recommend Ely's Cream Balm to all hay fever sufferers, it is, in my opinion, a sure cure. I was afflicted for 25 years, and never before found permanent relief.—W. H. Haskins, Marshfield, Vt.

months, been agent at Altona, Florida,
on the Florida Southern railway. He passed through a few days ago on a brief
visit to Fort Wayne, and says he likes
the climate of Florida very much and has greatly improved in health. The place at which he is stationed is right in the heart of the orange district. He returns after making a short visit to Fort Wayne and LaGro," says our Andrews
correspondent.

CAMP GRANT.

A Great Throng There and Crowds Constantly Arriving—The Parade
This After-
noon.

Camp Grant resounded with martial
music and tread this morning and Colonel Zollinger was busy, arranging details for the parade this afternoon. There were appointments for special service and Captain Tyrrell was arranging the companies for the line of March. The field was a vast sea of tents and accommodations were stretched to their utmost capacity. The management have engaged public halls to entertain the throng and no one is likely to suffer.

The battle of Gettysburg, the tented
show, and various gaming devices, candy and lemonade stands divided the attention of the visitors, some of whom were yet joyful over the camp fire last night, its songs and the magnificent address of the gallant General Rosecrans,
who was tendered an ovation by the old veterans, many of whom he often led to victory.

From noon yesterday there was almost
a constant throng of visitors to the city,
the most notable being the Jackson
companies in the evening. Every train
this morning was loaded with old veterans and their friends and on a few of the roads specials were run. The crowd exceeds all expectations and to-morrow
will witness another great influx
of strangers who are attracted
here by the advertised presence of Rev.
Sam Jones and Col. Bob Ingersoll.
Neither of them will be present. Most of the railroads advertise special trains
and the reunion people will certainly be at a loss to know how to appease the throng or entertain them.

THE PARADE.

Most interest centered in the parade
this afternoon. At 2 o'clock the participants in the procession began to form
and shortly after pursued this line of march:

Starting from the camp at 2 p. m.
South on Barr to Berry, east on Berry
to Clay, south on Clay to Wayne, west
on Wayne to Lafayette, south on Lafayette to Lewis, west on Lewis to Calhoun, north on Calhoun to Berry, east
on Berry to Court, (reviewing stand, Court Berry street,) north on Court
to Main, west on Main to Calhoun,
south on Calhoun to Berry, west on Berry to Broadway, south on Broadway
to Wayne, east on Wayne to Calhoun,
north on Calhoun to Columbia, east on Columbia to Barr, north on Barr to camp.

Col. C. A. Zollinger was in command,
with Adjutant General Koontz and members of the governor's staff for aids. The
The militia formed with the Ohio troops in the lead, the Michigan troops second
and the Indiana troops last. In the first carriage were Generals Rosecrans and Gibson. In the second carriage were Congressman Robert Lowry, Capt. J. B.
White and General Williams. The Michigan ladies and Indiana ladies
were in the carriages following.

BUGLE CALLS.

The big delegations came in to-day.
The camp grounds should be lighted.
Senator Harrison is expected to-night.

The old vets all pay fifty cents apiece
to enter their names on the roll.

Hon. R. C. Bell fought under General
Rosecrans.

It is now conceded the reunion is a financial success.

The rival Warsaw G. A. R. posts attracted attention.

Some of the soldier boys paraded the streets all last night.

General H. A. Axline, adjutant-general of Ohio, arrived here yesterday.

To-morrow and Monday an admission
fee of 25 cents will be charged to the grounds.

The members of Governor Gray's staff are in the city. The governor will not be here.

A salute of thirteen guns was fired
upon the appearance of General Rosecrans on the camp.

Captain D. H. Chase, late of the Seventeenth United States infantry, is stopping at the Rich.

Neither Sam Jones or Bob Ingersoll
will be here and the reunion folks should not charge admission on Sunday.

Rev. S. A. Northrop and Rev. Bacher,
of this city, have declined to speak at Camp Grant to-morrow. The committee is looking up local attractions.

The Emmet Rifles, as has been their custom several years, will attend the cathedral in a body to-morrow morning.
They will be escorted by the uniformed
Catholic Knights.

Congressman Lowry, Mayor Muhler,
General Rosecrans, and General Tyrrell were out riding in an open carriage last night. The SENTINEL reporter was presented to the warrior by Mr. Muhler.

General Reub Williams says in the Warsaw Times: "According to the Fort Wayne papers nearly every one
that has arrived in that place to attend
the reunion are officers, either generals,
colonels, majors or captains, and we noticed that a lieutenant was mentioned,

but we have not seen a personal of a private soldier. We are afraid this hitting business is getting a little 'snobbish.'"

The way things look now the reunion
committee will clear several thousand dollars. The grounds are crowded with privileges, shows, etc., which pay big prices, and large crowds are reported to
be coming from all directions to-morrow.
Messrs. Swann, Sullivan and Harper
are feeling good.

C. A. Pickard & Co. had three magnificent base burners artistically arranged on their wagon. First came the time tried round "Splendid," then the Jewett fancy base burner, the latest thing out in stove art. The third stove
was the celebrated square "Splendid,"
the merits of which are well known to hundreds of our citizens who have them
in use. It is hard to beat C. A. Pickard & Co. in anything in the stove line.

The 129th regiment, Indiana volunteer, held their eighteenth annual reunion at Camp Grant yesterday, when about seventy-five of the old boys answered to the roll call. Col. Zollinger presided. The regular order of business
was transacted and the following elected officers of the association for the ensuing year: President, Col. C. A. Zollinger,
Indianapolis; vice-president, Private H.
H. Swigart, Atwood, Ind.; secretary,
Adjutant E. G. Melendy, Fremont Ind.;
treasurer, Private Dennis Monahan, Fort Wayne. The meeting adjourned to meet again next year at the call of the officers
of the association.

PRICE THREE CENTS

AWFUL!

200 People Lose Their Lives.

All the Lives Lost in the River Volga, Where the Steamer Burned to the Water.

A Duel is Averted by McLean and Halstead, of Cincinnati.

STEAMER BURED.

Two Hundred People Perish in the Flames.

London, Aug. 21.—The report that the British steamer "Aberdeen" had been foundered in the China sea is not correct. The announcement of her arrival at Suez has just been received.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says that a passenger steamer plying on the river Volga, at Saratov, the capital of the province Saratov, in Russia, was burned to-day, and 200 lives were lost.

APPEAL TO THE CODE.

Mr. Halstead Wants to Fight, but Mr. McLean Won't.

New York, Aug. 21.—Correspondence is made public between Col. W. G. Terrell, acting for Murat Halstead, editor of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, and John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Gen. Roger A. Pryor. Halstead demanded a settlement of the differences and McLean at first declined to appoint a friend, but subsequently named General Pryor. Halstead claimed to be even with McLean in this newspaper warfare, but asserted that McLean was responsible for statements made in a Cincinnati evening paper, and for which he wanted an apology or blood. McLean disclaimed any responsibility for the publication, and showed a telegram he had sent a week before deprecating. Halstead accepted this as satisfactory and there will be no duel.

Geronimo Surrounded.

Nogales, Arizona, Aug. 21.—While negotiations between the Mexican authorities and Geronimo near Ariz Pe, the Mexicans quickly surrounded the Indians and now have them where there is no possibility of escape. Geronimo has been notified that the only terms will be unconditional surrender.

A BAD RUNAWAY.

J. W. Whitacre and Mr. Green, of New Haven, Badly Hurt.

Mr. J. W. Whitacre and Mr. Green drove in from New Haven this morning behind a heavy coil. The animal took fright on Lafayette street and dashed onto Wayne at a furious gait. The thoroughly frightened horse made a lunge for Dwight D. Gillett's front gate and striking the vehicle was smashed and its occupants pitched out and both were badly bruised and cut. A little child of Mr. Gillett's was run over in the flight and received painful injuries. It was a frightful spectacle to look at the horse rush madly through the gateway into a rear shed where it dropped to the earth. Messrs. Whitacre and Green will be laid up and they are under obligations to the ladies of the neighborhood for tender and affectionate dressing of their wounds.

Mr. Leo Pottitzer, of Lafayette, Ind., will spend Sunday with his relatives in this city, on route to his home, after an extensive eastern trip.

Adjutant General Koonz is in the city. He says in explanation of the charge of Lafayette papers that he has necessarily deferred the report of the late encampment; that his report will be submitted next week; that he has been obliged to look after office business which had accumulated during the encampment; that all of the Lafayette bills have been paid, and that the report is delayed because of a horse bill and the disappearance of some tents, which have to be traced, and which are now being looked after.

HON. B. F. IBACH.

He is Nominated for Joint Representative.

The joint representative convention between Huntington and Allen counties convened at 2 o'clock. Chairman John Wilkinson, of the county committee, called the meeting to order. Mr. Harry France was chosen chairman and A. J. Moynihan secretary, with democratic editors as assistants. Messrs. O. B. Wiley, of Allen, and Charles Walters, of Huntington, were named as tellers.

The following resolutions were introduced and adopted:

I move that no person shall be balloted for in this convention unless such person shall personally pledge himself to support the nominee of this convention and the entire democratic nomination—state, county, congressional and senatorial and judicial—and if elected support the nominee of the democratic caucus for United States senator.

CHARLES A. WALTER.

Nominations were declared in order. Master Workman Cohen, of Wabash assembly, handed a resolution asking the convention to endorse C. A. Bookwalter, a republican put forward by the Knights of Labor. The communication was received and placed on file.

There was a controversy over the delegate from Madison township. W. T. Pratt held a proxy, and Dr. J. L. Smith was delegated to take his place and cast the vote of Madison township.

The following resolution was introduced by A. J. Moynihan and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the nominee of this convention shall stand pledged, if elected, to use every honorable effort for the advancement of the best interests of labor, and to make such legislation as will best promote the best interests of the Knights of Labor.

Capt. E. B. Smith nominated George L. Benson, a Knight of Labor of Wabash Assembly, and member of the typographical union, in a speech endorsing the Democratic party as the friend of labor.

Mr. Christian Piepenbrink nominated W. S. Oppenheim.

W. S. Robinson, of Allen, nominated B. F. Ibach, of Huntington.

The candidates pledged themselves in brief speeches.

There are sixty votes in all, making thirty-one necessary to a choice. Allen has 34 and Huntington 10.

The first ballot resulted: Benson, 9; Ibach, 27; and Oppenheim, 22.

The second ballot resulted: Ibach, 31; Oppenheim, 21; Benson, 6.

Mr. Ibach was nominated by acclamation, and made a speech.

THE WAY TO CHURCH.

Remember the Sabbath Day and Keep it Holy.

Services at Trinity M. E. church to-morrow morning and evening as usual.

Usual services at the Baptist church to-morrow. Soldiers of Camp Grant are welcome, individually or in companies. Seats reserved for the old veterans.

Rev. T. L. Hughes will again preach in the Second Presbyterian church Sabbath morning at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. You are cordially invited to hear him.

There will be services at the Wayne Street M. E. church to-morrow by the pastor, Rev. F. G. Brown, at 10:30 and 7:45. Sabbath school at 2 o'clock. All are welcome.

Public services at the Berry street M. E. church, corner West Berry and Harrison streets, to-morrow morning and evening, by the pastor. Subject of morning, "A Hero Incarnate." Evening, "World Building." Soldiers and strangers welcome.

You are cordially invited to attend services at Grace Reformed chapel, East Washington street. The morning service will be dedicated to the soldiers. Remember the hours, 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. Come and welcome.

Come to the song service at the Railroad Y. M. C. A., Sunday at the usual time, 2:30 p. m., standard. Railroad men come. All are invited.

Grace Reformed church excursion to Rome City next Friday, Aug. 27. Go with them.

Fred Bohling, the young man who died early this morning, will be buried to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the residence of his parents, corner Creighton avenue and Forest street. From there he will be taken to Zion Lutheran church, where Professor Zuercher will speak in German and Rev. Wagenhals in the English language.

The Procession Passing.

As we go to press the procession is passing and it is not only the grandest in the history of Fort Wayne but we believe stands unequalled in the state. The military display was simply great and merchants and manufacturers did themselves honor. The reunion promoters have reason to be proud of their work.

MASONIC BENEFIT SOCIETY.

Excellent Condition of Its Finances—Falling Off in Membership.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 21.—The Masonic Mutual Benefit society held its seventeenth annual meeting yesterday afternoon. The president, Austin H. Brown, in his annual address, said that a reduction of $5,241.40 had been made in expenses, that the outstanding liabilities, $45,000, were lower than for years; that the mortality for the year was eighty-eight against 111 in 1885; that the membership had decreased from 10,318 in 1885 to 6,881 in 1886, owing largely to the abandonment of the old system of soliciting members through agents.

George H. West, secretary, reported a membership of 3,810 in the first division and 3,171 in the second. The cost of insurance to each member last year was $18.02 per $1,000. The assets of the society are $85,285.63; liabilities $35,505.50 in the first division, and $35,671.74 and $10,040.60 respectively, in the second. During the year $258,850 has been paid to beneficiaries, making a total paid, $3,000,587.96. Wm. H. Smythe, treasurer, reported receipts $308,456.24; disbursements, $302,022.75; cash balance $6,363.71.

DEATH LIST.

The Mortuary Report of the Week.

The following is the list of deaths since last Saturday:

Alvin Borg, aged 26 years, suicide. Scholastic Pierrot, 63 years, paralysis.

Michael Donovan, 49 years, abscess of the lungs.

Charles Brandt, 24 years, typhoid fever.

Fred Bohling, 23 years, inflammation of the bowels.

Mary Langer, 8 months, cholera infantum.

O. Bird, 2 days, exhaustion.

John Langer, 8 months, cholera infantum.

Mary Miller, 35 years, typhoid fever.

Clara E. Anweiler, 8 years, brain fever.

Daniel Uppliger, 69 years, heart disease.

Annie Osterman, 24 years, consumption.

The Odd Fellows Abroad.

The Kendallville Standard says: "The Odd Fellows picnic and reunion at Rome City yesterday was a success. There were probably nearly 4,000 people there, coming from nearly all points in northern Indiana. Grand Master J. B. Kenner and Past Grand Representative Enoch Cox made the regular addresses, and they were both able, and attentively listened to. The hands present from Portland, Fort Wayne, Ligonier and Kendallville, furnished the music, and all of it was of superior order. In the afternoon a little extra, not advertised in the program, was thrown in, by calling for impromptu speeches, when Senator Drake, J. D. Ferrall, O. L. Ballou, Robert Lockhart, of Ligonier, and Grand Master Kenner were called out and made short addresses, highly pleasing to the audience. There has seldom been an hour of more pleasant and brilliant entertainment in the tabernacle there than that was."

Henry Chipman Post 80, from Warsaw, and one of the best Grand Army assemblies in the state, is attending the reunion under command of Gen. Roub Williams.

Northern Indiana fared exceedingly well at the recent democratic state convention. Four of the candidates on the ticket—Nelson, Coffroth, Munson and Krueger—reside north of the Wabash.

COMING CAMPAIGN.

Meeting of the State Central Committee and the Candidates—What Some of the Latter Have to Say.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 21.—All of the democratic candidates for state offices came to town yesterday to advise with the state central committee and to be assessed. Chairman Henderson's opinion that there will be no need of a "har!" this year because the state is already secure in its democracy, came like an evangel to the various nominees. The present requirements were said to be limited to room rent for the committee, stationary and a salary for the secretary. To meet these and other "incidentals," it is thought that an assessment of $1,000 per state candidate, payable in installments, will be adequate. The burden of the campaign expenses will come later in the season, when foreign oratorical talent is imported. But the campaign is not to be on the "wind-work" plan. Several of the nominees are not successful speakers, and these believe in other methods of work. Members of the committee are pronounced in the statement that the day of vote-making at $2 per head is over in Indiana, and neither the committee nor the candidates are anticipating the collection of funds for any other than legitimate expenses.

Judge Nelson, candidate for lieutenant governor, is in the city. He is an able and modest gentleman, and has been made to feel that the people, at least the democracy, of his part of the state are well pleased with the state ticket. Without boasting as to even probabilities, he said that there was every reason to believe that the ticket would receive the full support of the democracy.

Superintendent Sweeney, of Dubois county, nominated for the state superintendency of schools, is at the Grand. He is as chipper as if his election had already been guaranteed, and this in spite of the political shafts which have already hurled at him, chiefly on the score of his nationality and his religion. With regard to the story that he was educated for the priesthood, but abandoned it because he saw, loved and married a maiden, Prof. Sweeney said it was true with these exceptions: He was not educated for the priesthood, never took holy orders, and didn't meet his wife until two years after he began to teach in the public schools. Mr. Sweeney further said:

"I was reared a Catholic, and have no desire to conceal or deny it, for I would be less than a man to do so. But I am not responsible for having been born into a Catholic family, and my religion in no way interferes with the full performance of my duties."

"Is it true that the public schools of Dubois county are conducted for the benefit of the Catholic church?"

"It is not true. At least 75 per cent. of the teachers are Protestants, and fully 50 per cent. of them are republicans. The Catholics pay their proportion for the support of the schools and patronize them. After school hours in some districts the Catholics use the public school buildings for parochial instruction, but that is not peculiar to that people or Dubois county."

"It has been hinted that because of my relations to the Catholics I might be loyal to the public schools. I have such faith in the public schools that I would almost as soon think of going back on my mother as on them, for all the education I have they gave me, and I have reason to be devoted to them."

Mr. Sweeney is a gentleman of agreeable address, and his outspoken, frank demeanor is making him friends where opposition would naturally be expected. His conference on the ticket now think that he will add an element of strength wholly unlooked for, and there are also those who fear that his nomination was a mistake. Time will tell.

The central committee met yesterday

afternoon at its room in the Franklin insurance building. Messrs. Nelson, Miers, McMullen, Byrnes, Coffroth, Munson and Sweeney, state candidates, and Messrs. Rynn and Bailey, with their advisers, together with a considerable lobby, were present. The business of the meeting was to select an executive committee and to elect a secretary and treasurer. There was only one name suggested for treasurer—Mr. John P. Frenzel—and that gentleman was elected. It is thought that the executive committee will consist of Joseph E. McDonald, J. H. Rice, John A. Holman, W. J. Craig, S. P. Sheerin, Israel Curry of Boon, and the chairman. For secretary there were numerous candidates, including Dick Johnson and Loring Bandy, of Marion county; Ed Chubman, of Madison; J. W. Cravens, of Monroe, and Editor Williams, of Johnson. The committee elected R. O. Johnson secretary, and for an executive committee selected the gentleman named above.

Attention Democrats.

The Democrats of Allen county are requested to meet on Friday, the 3rd day of September, 1886, at the usual voting places in their respective wards, townships and precincts for the purpose of electing by ballot 153 delegates to attend the county convention to be held in the city of Fort Wayne, on Saturday, the 4th day of September, 1886,—which convention will meet for the purpose of nominating one senator, two representatives to the general assembly, one judge of the superior court of Allen county, one prosecuting attorney, clerk of the circuit court, auditor, recorder, treasurer, sheriff, coroner, surveyor, and one commissioner of the first district. In said convention the townships, wards and precincts, will be entitled to the following number of delegates:

SWEPT FROM EARTH.

A Cyclone Visits Texas With all its Fury.

VICTORIA, Texas, Aug. 21.—A disastrous wind storm visited this city yesterday. The east bound passenger train standing at the depot here was blown over upon the platform. The whole colored section was almost literally swept from the earth. About seventy-five houses were completely demolished, and 118 more or less damaged.

GALVESTON, Texas, Aug. 21.—The schooner Sironia Perkins, engaged in the lumber trade, was sunk by the force of the gale, off the bar in six fathoms of water, Thursday night. Of the four persons on board, only one escaped and he swam for a distance of twelve miles.

INDIANOLA, Texas, Aug. 21.—Everybody wants to get away. They have nothing to eat and no clothes. It is reported the lower end of town is all gone, from Mrs. Loggins' to the ice house, on both sides of the street. The wharf is also gone. There are supposed to be many lives lost, as many persons are missing, and only one body found.

Among the persons missing are:

Dr. Lewis.
Captain Reed.
Dr. Rosecrans.
Mrs. Sheppard and family.
Mrs. Hodges and two children.
Henry Sheppard was found across the lake, badly bruised but still alive.
Mrs. Max Lother lost her two children. One died in her arms.

The Lafayette Journal says: "Miss Sophia Schmetzer, of Fort Wayne, the guest of Mrs. George Sattler, returns home to-day after a pleasant visit here.
She will be accompanied by Mrs. Geo.
Sattler, who will be her guest during the reunion."

J. A. Kautz, formerly of Indianapolis, and a student of Butler university, was married last night to Miss Inez Gillen, of Wabash, also a former student of Butler. Mr. Kautz, it will be remembered, credibly represented his college in the oratorical association two years ago. He is now superintendent of schools at Bluffton.

The members of the Fort Wayne encampment feel justly proud of the admirable work of their representatives in the competitive drill at Rome City. The Fort Wayne Canton has for the past three years been under the command of months, been agent at Albion, Florida,

on the Florida Southern railway. He passed through a few days ago on a brief
visit to Fort Wayne, and says he likes
the climate of Florida very much and
has greatly improved in health. The place at which he is stationed is right in the heart of the orange district. He returns after making a short visit to Fort Wayne and LaGro," says our Andrews
correspondent.

CAMP GRANT.

A Great Throng There and Crowds Constantly Arriv- ing—The Parade

This After-
noon.

Camp Grant resounded with martial
music and tread this morning and Colonel Zollinger was busy, arranging details for the parade this afternoon. There were appointments for special service and Captain Tyrrell was arranging the companies for the line of March. The field was a vast sea of tents and accommodations were stretched to their utmost capacity. The management have engaged public halls to entertain the
throng and no one is likely to suffer.

The battle of Gettysburg, the tented
show, and various gaming devices, candy and lemonade stands divided the
attention of the visitors, some of whom
were yet joyful over the camp fire last
night, its songs and the magnificent address of the gallant General Rosecrans,
who was tendered an ovation by the old
veterans, many of whom he often led to victory.

From noon yesterday there was almost
a constant throng of visitors to the city,
the most notable being the Jackson
companies in the evening. Every train
this morning was loaded with old veterans and their friends and on a few of the roads specials were run. The crowd
exceeds all expectations and to-morrow
will witness another great influx
of strangers who are attracted
here by the advertised presence of Rev.
Sam Jones and Col. Bob Ingersoll.
Neither of them will be present. Most
of the railroads advertise special trains
and the reunion people will certainly be
at a loss to know how to appease the
throng or entertain them.

THE PARADE.

Most interest centered in the parade
this afternoon. At 2 o'clock the participants in the procession began to form
and shortly after pursued this line of
march:

Starting from the camp at 2 p. m.,
South on Barr to Berry, east on Berry
to Clay, south on Clay to Wayne, west
on Wayne to Lafayette, south on Lafayette to Lewis, west on Lewis to Calhoun, north on Calhoun to Berry, east
on Berry to Court, (reviewing stand, Court Berry street) north on Court
to Main, west on Main to Calhoun,
south on Calhoun to Berry, west on Berry to Broadway, south on Broadway
to Wayne, east on Wayne to Calhoun,
north on Calhoun to Columbia, east on Columbia to Barr, north on Barr to
camp.

Col. G. A. Zollinger was in command,
with Adjutant General Koontz and members of the governor's staff for aids. The militia formed with the Ohio troops
in the lead, the Michigan troops second
and the Indiana troops last. In the first carriage were Generals Rosecrans and Gibson. In the second carriage were Congressman Robert Lowry, Capt. J. D.
White and General Williams. The Michigan ladies and Indiana ladies
were in the carriages following.

BUGLE CALLS.

The big delegations came in to-day.
The camp grounds should be lighted.
Senator Harrison is expected to-night.
The old vets all pay fifty cents apiece
to enter their names on the roll.

Hon. R. C. Bell fought under General
Rosecrans.

It is now conceded the reunion is a
financial success.

The rival Warsaw G. A. R. posts attracted attention.
Some of the soldier boys paraded the
streets all last night.

General H. A. Axline, adjutant-general of Ohio, arrived here yesterday.
To-morrow and Monday an admission
fee of 25 cents will be charged to the grounds.

The members of Governor Gray's
staff are in the city. The governor will not be here.

A salute of thirteen guns was fired
upon the appearance of General Rosecrans at the camp.

Captain D. H. Chase, late of the Seventeenth United States infantry, is stopping at the Rich.

Neither Sam Jones or Bob Ingersoll
will be here and the reunion folks should
not charge admission on Sunday.

Rev. S. A. Northrop and Rev. Bacher,
of this city, have declined to speak at Camp Grant to-morrow. The committee is looking up local attractions.

The Emmet Rifles, as has been their
custom several years, will attend the cathedral in a body to-morrow morning.
They will be escorted by the uniformed
Catholic Knights.

Congressman Lowry, Mayor Muhler,
General Rosecrans, and General Tyrrell were out riding in an open carriage last night. The EVENING reporter was present to the warrior by Mr. Muhler.

General Roub Williams says in the Warsaw Times: "According to the Fort Wayne papers nearly every one
that has arrived in that place to attend
the reunion are officers, either generals,
colonels, majors or captains, and we noticed that a lieutenant was mentioned,

but we have not seen a personnel of a private soldier. We are afraid this titling
business is getting a little 'snobbish.'"

The way things look now the reunion
committee will clear several thousand dollars. The grounds are crowded with privileges, shows, etc., which pay big
prices, and large crowds are reported to
be coming from all directions to-morrow.
Messrs. Swann, Sullivan and Harper
are feeling good.

C. A. Pickard & Co. had three magnificent base burners artistically arranged on their wagon. First came the time tried round "Splendid," then the Jewett fancy base burner, the latest
thing out in stove art. The third stove
was the celebrated square "Splendid,"
the merits of which are well known to
hundreds of our citizens, who have them
in use. It is hard to beat C. A. Pickard & Co. in anything in the stove line.

Eight comrades of the company D.,
113th Indiana volunteers infantry, viz.:
A. B. Walters, J. T. Young, of Fort Wayne; Captain W. W. Robbins, of Bunker Hill; Isalah Smith, of Waterloo;
Marl Casselman, of Sedan; Henry Crook,
Lewis Inhof, of Butler, with Comrade
Heathman, of company H., same regiment; Mrs. J. T. Young and Comrade R.
H. Weaver, of Butler, as guests, dined with their lieutenant, C. F. Mosier and family yesterday at his headquarters at Camp Grant.

The 129th regiment, Indiana volunteer, held their eighteenth annual reunion at Camp Grant yesterday, when
about seventy-five of the old boys answered to the roll call. Col. Zollinger
presided. The regular order of business
was transacted and the following elected
officers of the association for the ensuing
year: President, Col. C. A. Zollinger,
Indianapolis; vice-president, Private H.
H. Swigart, Atwood, Ind.; secretary,
Adjutant E. G. Meloney, Fremont, Ind.;
treasurer, Private Dennis Monahan, Fort Wayne. The meeting adjourned to meet again next year at the call of the officers
of the association.

Sportsmen's Emporium.

I have just received a large number of fine parrots, said to be the best talking birds bred and by far the finest species ever brought to this city. I have made the selection of the present tribe to especially suit the tastes of my patrons, knowing if they want a good bird, I can fully guarantee one. My place has always been headquarters for sportsmen when they want fishing tackle, always keeping a fine and select class of goods as well as the cheaper grade, and can suit anybody. If your gun or revolver is out of whack or needs any repairs or cleaning, bring them to 53 East Main street and I will put them in shape as good as new and at a reasonable charge.
